REMINDERS:

Please be thinking about the redesign of some of our tools/forms. On May 19, we will determine dates and locations (for those that can) to come together to work on this project.

Your Action Plans were due on May 1st. Thank you for getting those to me. It is obvious the amount of time and effort that you and your teams have spent in finalizing your plans.

If you have not sent your plans or if you and I have not communicated regarding certain circumstances, then I will look forward to receiving your plans on Monday.

Continue to log in your coaching activities.
